The plot allows for a buildability of 30% of the land size, with a total construction density of 35%, plus an additional 50% permitted below ground level—perfect for basements, garages, leisure areas, or wellness spaces. Urban planning regulations include a 5-meter setback from the river and 3 meters from neighboring properties, ensuring both ?privacy ?and ?compliance. Opportunities ?like ?this—within walking ?distance to Puerto Banús—are ?extremely limited. A truly prime
